“ Our family LOVED this precious lady who we lived near for several years. We did not learn of her passing until after the burial. We loved to visit her to see her sweet smile and hear her contagious laugh. She was always full of love and stayed positive no matter what. She kept her trust in Jesus and was a good example to others. We will miss her! Love and prayers to her family, caregivers and friends. The Knowles Family

“ Always a sweetheart. I made her a walker bag with birds on it because I know that she loved them. Rest easy. You will surely be missed.
