

Naomi Katherine Tice

February 3, 1927 - May 4, 2014

Naomi Katherine Tice, age 87, of Evensville died Sunday evening, May 4, 2014 at her home. She was born February 3, 1927 in Dayton to the late George and Nancy Catherine (Ritchey) Higgins. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Lawrence Tice; sisters, Alma Walker and Mary Ellen Weispfenning and brother, Nelson Higgins.

A resident of Rhea County most of her life, Naomi was a private duty registered nurse and enjoyed traveling, especially to Alaska, fishing and reading. Naomi served her country as a surgical nurse in the medical detachment, 3rd US Army at the rank of major.

Naomi is survived by her sisters, Doris Kimsey of Dayton, Patricia Powell of Columbus, GA, and Marjorie (Richard) Tipton of Evensville; her brother, Donald (Peggy) Higgins of McMinnville and numerous nieces and nephews. Graveside services with military honors for Naomi will be held Tuesday evening at 6:00 p.m. in the Summer City Cemetery on Dayton Mountain with Rev. Clyde Fitzgerald officiating.

Please share your memories of Naomi on her online guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

The family is being served by Vanderwall Funeral Home

“ Dear Neighbor,

Hello. My name is Jessica Staggs. I was not able to speak with you personally, but wanted to write and send my deepest sympathies for the loss of your loved one. This a very difficult time for you and your entire family, and I hope these Bible verses can provide you with even a little bit of comfort.

WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES

? The Bible's resurrection accounts give us a sure hope.—John 11:39-44.

? Jehovah is eager to bring the dead back to life.—Job 14:13-15.

? All of those in the common grave of mankind will be resurrected.—John 5:28, 29.

Revelation 21:3,4 tell us that the suffering we all experience, the tears and the pain, will all be a thing of the past. And yes!, even death will be no more. How we long for that time.

The website www.jw.org has these and so many other comforting articles taken directly from the Bible that may be of some encouragement to you and your family.

We also would like to invite you to our weekly meetings. PERHAPS you have passed a Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in your community and wondered what takes place inside. Did you know that our weekly meetings are open to the public? Visitors are warmly welcomed. Attending meetings at the Kingdom Hall can be a very rewarding experience. You will learn about God, and through the Bible-based instruction you receive there, Jehovah God will teach you how "to benefit yourself."—Isaiah 48:17.

The meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses are free, and no collections are taken. Would you like to attend a meeting at the Kingdom Hall in your community? You are warmly invited to do so.
