I was very sad to hear of Patti's passing. She was one of my first friends when we moved to Camp Springs, Md from Fl. We were in 9th grade. She was kind, always looking out for me and funny. I lived in the neighborhood that bordered her parents property. We could get to each other quickly down the dirt road next to our house. We shared a lot thru HS and even a few years later until I moved to Fl again. We both married by then. I remember they had a huge German Shepard. Very protective. We lost touch w each other after 10 yr HS Reunion. I live in NC now. It would have been interesting to visit since she was in TN. I regret we didn't. I send my regards and prayers. I pray you have joyous memories. I do. God Bless. Love Cindi Rodgers
