“ Paul was a great uncle, he treated us children (nieces and nephews) as if we were his own, he always had a joke to tell or a prank to pull. He made us laugh, he would have me or Steve to go check on his flower bed and we would go out and we would be soaked from were he poured cold water on us, now when I see the flower bed I will have imagine he is at the window wanting to pull the prank but the water won't be there but in my heart he will always be there.
