“ Im gonna miss you so much even though I never come around as much as I should. You were a great Dad and just to see any of us happy was all it took to make you happy. I am thankful for the great qualities, values, and morals you and mom always tried to teach us...overall successful for the most part. Too many great memories but I always loved when you had to tell people about my search...always so proud of that story. And Im glad you had that story to tell people. I love you and I know you are out of pain and looking at us wishing you could dry our tears. I know when I get there you will be right there waiting on me...waiting for us all. Love you always...your baby girl
