“ Raymond was a sweet person. We worked at Dayton Wal-Mart together. We had a lot of fun unloading trucks. He got help for me when I fell off ladder at Wal-Mart. I loved him as if he was my dad or granddad. He will be missed by all that knew him. God bless his family.

“ So sorry to hear about Raymond. The last time I talked to him and Wilma was at Mary's funeral so I did not know he had been sick. He was such a good man, a hard worker and always so friendly.

“ I remember Uncle Raymond at the Dayton Lake when I was 8 or 9 years old...he was always skiing...always had a boat....Thomas Jay would ski up onto the land and never touch the water. They were the dare devils of my youth. I always remember tall Uncle Raymond...never very loud and mostly laughing a lot. He would hang his head and just shake it when words wouldn't do. To Jeff and Randy and the grandkids my condolences go to you in this time of loss and mourning. May God's hands comfort you in this time of grief.
