“WOW.” We can't believe the "Wow-Man" is gone. How sad. We extend our deepest sympathy. Richard was a treasure. His outgoing, upbeat, funny attitude will be sorely missed by his family and Mike and his crew, I am sure. We enjoyed the time around him when he worked on our house. Now he is somewhere it no longer "all pays the same." God bless you and yours.##imported-begin##Paul & Bonnie Cochran##imported-end##

“Dearest Kathy and Family, What a blessing to see the strength that our dear Lord and Saviour is giving you at this time. What a hope we have! And when again you, and all who loved him, and are faithful, see him, we will know him, for we have the promise that we shall "be known as we are known". I will greatly miss his greetings every Sabbath morning, and his shaking my "pinkie" when my hands were full, and he'd just laugh, and say, "Happy Sabbath, Martha". He was our "special", "God-appointed greeter", and I shall miss him painfully, but with peace, in knowing that he knew "his" Jesus. I love you all, Martha##imported-begin##Martha Ledbetter##imported-end##
