“ Roy Lynn helped me become the man I am today. The examples he showed me as a child of being a father, a husband, and simply a caring human being kept me moving forward many times when I stumbled. I've held the Davis family deep in my heart for a long time and hope they can find comfort in the days ahead.

2 of my favorite memories of Roy Lynn are his piano playing at the church in Spring City and giving his brother a ride in his little red convertible sports car wearing his Tam. May God bring each of you comfort during this time loss. Sincerely, Martha Ledbetter
