“ Chris and the entire family. I am truly sorry for your loss, as I have lost my father also. Chris and I used to play together as kids up on 14th Avenue in Dayton. I moved away after High School but still read the Dayton Newspaper and hated to hear of your loss. Hopefully God will smile down on you all and bless you in your time of sorrow. Best wishes, David Williams, USAF Retired.##imported-begin##David Williams##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Frazier and Chris,

I have always thought highly of Mr. Frazier. I remember being able to look up to him when I was a young man as a person to emulate and respect. I appreciate all the warmth and friendship that was shown to my family and I.

I am sorrowful for your loss, but count your blessing to have had such a fine husband and father.

“ Phoebe - This is the MOST difficult time in life you will ever go through; however God is there with you and yours ALL the way!!!! God will give you the peace that passes all understanding as you enter this new phase of your life without Roy Clyde present with you; though he will continue to be with you in spirit. God Bless, Comfort, and give you peace. Joanna###imported-begin###Joanna Haspels (Klock)###imported-end##

“ Roy does not have to worry about his cancer being in remission and dreading the day it comes back! He was a good man & will be missed by all. Dad sure did enjoy being around him those few short years & so did I. God bless.

“ Roy Clyde you always treated me and Susan like we belonged to the family, you were so good and kind to us. You always had a smile for everyone no matter who they were. I know that your family will miss you terrible as I will. My heart goes out to everyone in your family. May God embrace you as you walk into those pearly gates, when you see momma and mamaw tell them hello and I love them.
