“ Aunt Ruth was a wonderful gracious lady and will be missed by all. I have never heard her speak a mean word to anyone and have only known her to show kindness to everyone. I know she is in a better place now and is with Uncle Buhl and Grandma once again as they have been for as long as I can remember. Thanks go out to Ruby and Henry for the wonderful care I know they gave Aunt Ruth while she was with them. They opened their hearts and home to her in a time of need##imported-begin##gayla courington##imported-end##

“ My memories of aunt Ruth and uncle Buhl go back to the 30s. Along with Viola and Herschel our families got together for all the holidays and in between times too. All three sisters reflected their mother in beauty and decorum. Ruth was so gracious and never spoke a harsh word. I know she will be taken to Heaven where I look forward to continuing our lifelong friendship.##imported-begin##Douglas F. Davis##imported-end##

“ Aunt Ruth was a wonderful person. We will miss her very much as will all that knew her for the lady she was. From the stays at the house on Mich ave in the 50's to Chattanooga Tenn in the 80s I have fond memory's of her. Buhl and Ruth treated my father Gail Burchard as there own son. Always there for him giving him a helping hand in life. She and Viola were inseparable now they will all join together again.##imported-begin##Gary Burchard##imported-end##

“ My husband's Aunt Ruth was a real lady. If she had been born in the South, she would have qualified as a Southern Belle. As it was, she was one by adoption. She had the gift of hospitality and no one ever left her home hungry or thirsty. I never heard her speak a harsh word or gossip about anyone. She's resting in Jesus now and I'm sure she will be among the redeemed at His Second Coming.##imported-begin##Tommie Burchard##imported-end##

“ I have fond memories of Aunt Ruth beginning when I was a little girl visiting in her lovely home in Battle Creek where both of our families resided. She was always gracious, and so pleasant to be around, and a wonderful helpmate to Uncle Buhl. She was a special aunt.

I look forward to the resurrection morning when there will be no more good-byes.##imported-begin##Carol B. Magboo##imported-end##

“ Aunt Ruth lived with us the last nine and half years of her life. How she would always have a smile on her face, never complaining. Yes, Aunt Ruth we all are awaiting for the trump of God to blow which will awaken the dead in Christ to be able to enter the every lasting live, in a better land, where there will not be any more sorrow or death.##imported-begin##Henry & Ruby Burchard##imported-end##
