“ MS Crowe was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. She had such a sweet voice and was always smiling. I know the terrible sadness of losing a mother, my thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Much love, Donna###imported-begin##Donna Reel Hodge###imported-end##

“ I came to know Ms.Crowe through my church's nursing home minstrey. She was a precious lady, I always enjoyed visiting with her. She talked with such compassion about her Christain faith and her wonderful family. I feel privileged to have known her. About 6 months ago I was visting the room next to hers when I heard her calling me from the hall. I was aware she was almost completely blind and I couldn't figure out why at first she was out of the room. When I went over to her she told me her room mate had fallen and she needed me to help her back to the bed. Ms. Crowe showed so much concern for her room mate that day, even though she couldn't see me, she said I heard your voice and had to come to you for help. That is pure love she showed which comes only through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She put self aside, which I'm sure she had done so many times in the past. I grew to love Ms. Crowe and always looked forward to a visit with her. My deepest sympathy goes to you her family and I rest assured we will meet again one day in heaven. She was a wonderful, wonderful lady. Love & Prayers to you, Angie Pritchett###imported-begin###Angie Pritchett, Bogles Chapel Baptist Church Ladies Group###imported-end##
