“ Our blessing has been in knowing Sue and her amazing family over the years. As we try to celebrate the gift of the special times we spent with her, we also know that her loss is one that will, as her life did, touch the lives of countless people like ourselves who loved and admired her. We pray for this family's healing and peace of mind. We send our strength and love to all of you.##imported-begin##Dietzen family##imported-end##

“ I was Sue's supervisor when she worked at Blue Cross back in 1999. I was very saddened to learn of her passing in today's obituary. She was a very special lady. I still make her Scalloped Potatoes from a recipe that she shared with me.

My thoughts and prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##Keith Bowman##imported-end##
