“Teresa and I were friends in HS. We re connected lately and were looking forward to lunch one day. She called me about 3 weeks ago, it was to inquire about Andys health. She was so worried about him....she had NO idea that God was preparing a place for HER not Andy. So surreal. Then about a week before her heart attack. She called and we had a wonderful time of chatting. She spoke so much about her faith in Christ, it made me feel so good to know she was a Christian. We were 2 rebels God relentlessly pursued and for that I will be eternally grateful. The first time she called, about a year ago maybe, it was funny. It was like we just picked right up. Her dogs were barking and she was screaming at them and one of her girls to get them to pipe down so she could talk. Girls, Andy and parents....my heart aches for you yet at the same time rejoices with you. I pray peace be upon you all, now and forever.

“Teresa was a beautiful person, inside and out. She had so much love, compassion and such a good heart. She would do anything she could to help others. She was a wonderful cook and the best friend ever. She loved Andy, her kids, grandkids, family, friends and her cats and dogs. She loved the Lord and had a lot of faith. She’s helped me get back on track more times than I can count. I feel like I’ve lost a sister. She was a bright light shining in this dark world. Her light got put out way too soon. I always told her she was an angel, now she really is one. My heart breaks for her family. I love them all dearly. Teresa you will always be in my heart and memories. I love and miss you so much. I’ll see you again someday.
