“ Moms favorite things <3

My mom could fish better than Laura Ingalls with Just a Little Kingdom, sometimes a sting tied to her toe. She loved living on the water, all my childhood, we were on the river camping fishing cooking, it was mom's happy place. Mama taught me how to arrowhead hunt, it was our thing to do. Mama woke up from a dream telling us an Indian man told her where he hid his good stuff, well we went to Parrots cave and mom went to the wall where he said. And my mom pulled out an excellent mint condition whole set. Mama loved to paint, draw and loved her coloring books. It was a special hidden talent that she enjoyed quietly but I have always adored each one. Mom loved her family so very much. She raised us to love fiercely each other, the same as she loved each of her brothers and sisters so fiercely. She loved her Mommy and Daddy with a love and loyalty that filled your heart. You always heard her adoration for her beautiful praying Mommy.

Mom's favorite color was lavender and she loved her flowers. She made everything beautiful and grow. I miss you so much mama. I feel you all around me, help me be strong. Kiss Tara for me and tell her I cry every day. I love you forever and ever. I hope we make you proud. You are my beautiful dancing spitfire.

“ God needed another Angel in Heaven. I rem Rosie and her Family when we were kids. And through Church and school. We were the same age. Her and her sisters and brother use to come to our house. Had not seen any of the Family in years. We played back then outside. Plus we fished. God Bless Rosie and her Family. Maude Walker, Dean Walker Begunich, Teresa Walker Laher
