“ Please accept my condolences. Id like to share the scripture at 1 Cor 1:3,4 which reminds us that God is here to provide comfort to us during times of need. I hope this scripture can help bring you piece of mind while you all take this time to heal.##imported-begin##Jessica Jordan##imported-end##

“ I will sorely miss my mother. She is my last connection to my childhood! I will always treasure the time I had with her the 7 straight days I sat with her in Memorial Hospital. Especially the one day she felt good after two diaylsis treatments -- and, enjoyed her lunch of fried catfish. She ate every crumb! What a simple joy to watch your dying mother enjoy food so much. She was so graceful and thankful to others during her ordeal. The Hospice of Chattanooga staff were so gracious and compasionate with mother in her final days. She is now with her "buddy" -- my dad -- and husband of 64 years. May God bless and be with us in this time of sadness.##imported-begin##Jim Woolen##imported-end##
