

Tyler Sneed

April 28, 1992 - November 20, 2010

Tyler Leon Sneed, age 18 of Spring City died early Saturday morning, November 20, 2010 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Tyler was born April 28, 1992 in Chattanooga, TN to Chris (Heather) Sneed of Evensville, TN and Dawn (George) Thacker of Spring City, TN. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Rodney Finkel.

A lifetime resident of Rhea County, Tyler was a senior at Rhea County High School. He was one class away from certification with the City of Dayton Volunteer Fire Dept. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church and was active in their youth group.

In addition to his parents, Tyler is survived by his brother Logan Sneed of Spring City, sisters Belle Sneed and Clara Sneed both of Evensville and April Thacker of Spring City, grandparents Leon and Linda Sneed, Mary Finkel, Birch and Pat Arnold and Rose Arnold, all of Dayton.

Graveside funeral services for Tyler will be Monday at 4:30 pm at Rhea Memory Gardens with Rev. Ken Pierce and Rev. Ann Blackburn officiating, followed by a white dove release.

Memorial contributions in his honor may be made to the Dayton Volunteer Fire Department or the First United Methodist Church Youth Group.

Please share your memories of Tyler on his on-line guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

The family is being served by the Vanderwall Funeral Home in Dayton where they will receive friends Sunday after 6:00 pm.

“ Chris, I am so very sorry for the loss of your son, I did not know until today, November 23, I can only pray for strength for you and Dawn and your families. I pray that Leon can be of great strength to you and that you to him. God will give you the strength and grace that you need, even when you think there is no way to make it through. That which does not kill us only makes us stronger. I wish I could take the heaviness of your hearts away, but I do not have that power. Hang on to your faith and you will make it through this. Hang on to your memories and the smiles and good times. God bless you Chris and Leon and families... Pat###imported-begin###Pat (Blake) Evans-Davis###imported-end##

“ Tyler was my bestfriend all throughout elementary school. He could make me smile just by walking in the room. I loved him so much. He was always there for me when i needed him the most, he was a life saver and the nicest person you'll ever meet. I never got to hang out with him this past summer like i was suppose to and it just broke my heart , when i heard what had happened to him i just thought it was a really bad nightmare. It was hard for me to accept that i would never get to see him again. Or hug him. or even tell him how much he meant to me. I will always have him in my heart no matter where my life takes me.

Tyler, i love you so much.

Rest in paradise love.##imported-begin##Jessica Trotter##imported-end##

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to Tyler’s family and friends. Words cannot touch the pain that everyone is going through in these trying times. I did not know Tyler personally, but I did not have too, to know that he is a fellow brother. Firefighters have a strong bond that no matter where or when a brother gets in trouble, gets hurt, or gives the ultimate sacrifice, it hurts the entire family. We have a brotherhood that cannot be broke, and Tyler will always be a part of this family. Any person that will give their time to protect our communities are heroes in my book, and Tyler is one of those people.

Tyler, God needed a firefighter in heaven and I’m sure that you will fill that honorable position, and do it well. Tyler you are in a better place now...you are in a position to watch over your fellow brothers and sisters, so Tyler do your job well and protect us in those worst situations that we may be here on earth.

Our thoughts and prayer will be with your family and friends.

Sincerely,

Lonnie C. Thomas

This is a special family, one that experiences tragedy on a daily basic but come home at the end of the day to our families. We all share hardships, holidays, and family experiences with each other while at the fire station. “ I had known Tyler since we were both very young. The story that stands out to me the most was at the courthouse. I was about 6 or 7 yrs old and Tyler was around 4. Both of our parents were there due to their jobs, we were supposed to be sitting in the back being quiet. Well, Tyler had started teasing me over my girly backpack and he put it on prancing around like a little girl saying, "look Im Courtney." I got very upset and tried snatching it from him and he fell back and hit his head and screaming in front of everyone! My mom had told me to apologize and when they were not looking he started laughing because I got in trouble!!! I was so mad at him...now all I can do is smile about that moment. Tyler was a very sweet guy and felt like family to everyone. I know its hard to accept right now but he is in a better place looking down on us all. He will always be missed! A prayer goes out to all of his family and friends, may God be with you all through this terrible time.##imported-begin##Courtney Ward##imported-end## “ Chris and Dawn..and to the rest of yall's family..

Chris. I didn't know Tyler, but if he was anything like you then I KNEW HIM>..i was readin thru the people here that have signed the guestbook ...and one stuck out about her girl and your son comin to your house...riding horses, 4 wheelers...etc..when we was growin up...that is what i remember about comin to your house with mike and your mama and daddy..maybe not the 4 wheelers lol..but we was family and alwasy was together as kids...God forbid if somethin was to happen to even one of mine and now that i have grandkids , geesh...but my heart just started breakin the min i read on fb... "you know, chris sneed, the police officer, son" i just fell on the ground and started cryin for you. and mike and your mama and daddy...and dawn. to loose your son. i dont even know what to say but that i am soooooo sorry ....if i could take it back, i would..in a min. just so you could have him back..i know we are suppose to rejoice in death and MOURN at birth...but how???? seems so backwards..but if nothing else..please know that i love you and your family. with all my heart.
wish i could be there brother...but too many miles separate us at this moment...i have you in GODS wonderful hands right now...and he is holdin you so tight. peace for you tonight and in the nights to come that you can make some sense outta what has happened to

“ I was Tyler's Biology teacher, I wasn't sure he could pass the gateway test so he went over my head. He went in on test day, nervous and unsure of himself. He asked many questions and by the end of the test, his smile will stay with me, hopefully, forever. We both felt like he had passed it. He will always be in my memories and we will meet again on the other side of glory. Take comfort in that. May God Bless and keep you and bring you through this. “ I was so saddened to hear about the loss of Tyler. Tyler and my daughter Jess were in elementary school together and almost every class together. Jessica and Tyler were together all the time in class and loved to to to his house and play with him. I will never forget riding from a fieldtrip from mayfield dairy farms and he told me to sit by him on the bus on the way home and I enjoyed every minute of it. I didn't think I would ever find someone to talk more than me but he talked to me all the way back to Dayton city school about his horses, riding 4 wheelers, when was jessica going to come to his house and play and smiling the whole time! And that beautiful smile! He touched so many lives and I Am thankful and blessed to have known such a loving, caring person! He will be greatly missed by so many people! He was a special person and will always remember that smile! I am so sorry for your loss but know we are all grieving with you and he will never be forgotten!!!!###imported-begin###Erica (McClain) Rappa###imported-end##

“ I knew Tyler through the fire department. He was in my FF1 class earlier this year and participated in our live burn in Graysville. He always had a smile and something good to say even in the most desperate of times. I remember how much joy he took in being able to out do Bryan Long in out turnout gear drills by having complete gear on in less than 45 seconds. He was a friend, as well as a brother in arms. “ I was sad when high school and new friends drew Matt and Tyler apart. They spent many fun times together and had a lot of deep talks over the years. Because of those talks, Matt is at peace that he will see his friend again. Until that time, we will miss his sweet presence here on earth--his friendliness and smile. “ I know you're gone, but I think it's appropriate to send this message so that someone you love may receive it. I haven't seen or talked to you in a while but this morning my friend was talking about your car accident, they said your name and I had them repeat it to make sure I heard right. I ran out of the nursery, where I was helping during church, I went outside and cried knowing I will never see you on this earth ever again. I started thinking about how we met at Cumberland Springs Bible Camp the summer of 2004, you were a great friend. I called you my Crazy Caring Crawdad Catching Comrade... You were the only one who didn't make fun of me because I was a girl and loved to catch crawdads, I always appreciated your kindness throughout the years I have known you. Anytime you saw me you never failed to say "hi". I know there are so many people who love you and miss you greatly, I will never let the wonderful memories we shared grow cold in my memory. I wrote down as many of them as I could and I look forward to the day when I will see you again. “ They say God does not give us more than we can handle. It is possible to survive the loss of a child, the loss of a sibling. It is NOT easy. As one who has walked both those journeys I encourage you to cherish your good memories, to smile, laugh and yes, to cry for your precious Tyler.

To Tyler's friends: share your stories (even stories of mischeiviousness) with his family. Visit them, stay close and do not be afraid to speak Tyler's name to his mom, his dad, to Logan. It is a gift they will cherish, knowing he is not forgotten.

Grieve. Tyler's life is too big, too special, too important to not be grieved. Seek help in that process. We are not given instruction manuals for raising our children, being a good brother, grandparent, step parent or friend. We are certainly not given instructions on burying and living on after the loss of someone so full of life and promise.

Be open to the angels God will send to comfort and help you. Persons you would never imagine will be a source of strength. Those who've suffered the same losses give us hope that we too will survive this unthinkable tragedy.

Be open to Tyler's presence, he will be near, his love will surround you and be with you forever.

Know that you are being held up in prayers of Thanksgiving for your 18 years with Tyler, in prayers for Strength as you begin your journey of sruvival, in prayers of Hope that Tyler's life - and his death will inspire others, in prayers for Comfort, comfort in knowing Tyler is safe in the arms of our loving Father.

Memories of him and his friends coming home after school riding the horses, helping John on the tractor, driving Dad's white Dodge all over the farm. Just a wonderful and caring person he was and so much fun to watch and listen to. He had a heart of gold.

I want you all to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I will always remember Tyler as a beautiful child of God.

“ Tyler was more than a friend to me. He was just always there when i needed him.

All those times we was at granzies and we would ride jetskis and just swim like on the 4th of july when Me, you, mackenley, and hayley sat on top of nanas house boat till three in the mornin. And you made this years halloween the best one possible so many laughs and fun times.

Tyler will be missed by many .. but that one day when we will get to see him again it will all be the same.

Dont cry because its over, smile because it happend.

The Sneed and Thacker family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Hanna Manley##imported-end##
