“ I remember high school, school had integrated a couple of years earlier. We were in a health or sociology class, I was seated beside Bill and he started to have a seizure (I had seizures when I was younger and the seizures stop at age 6 yrs of age) and Coach Williamson asked me to hold Bill down to stop him from hurting himself (the class saw Bill having a seizure and all ran out of class), damn he was strong bnut I kept him from hurting himself. Hadn't seen him sense high school often wondered what became of Bill. Sorry for your lost, my prayers are with his family, he was a some what quiet shy kind of guy...
